

Mrs. Jessie L. Leach, who has been disposed for the past week, on the account of a dislocated shoulder, is much improved.

Mr. Ed Ewing, of the Murfreesboro road, is very sick.

Taylor & Co. have just added to their funeral outfit a layout buggy, which is the finest in the city.

Much credit is due the management of the Horse Show, which was given under the auspices of the National Athletic Association. Mr. J. G. Blaine Boyd, President; R. C. Fisher, Vice President; Fred J. Ewing, Secretary; Louis K. Thomas, Sr., Treasurer, all of whom worked hard and spent money to give to Nashville this entertainment.

Miss Sallie A. Ezell, of East Nashville, who has been visiting her brother in Chicago since last June, returned to the city last week.

Mrs. Emma Grisham, of 1624 Jackson street, has a slight attack of sciatica.

Miss Florence Shelby, of Franklin, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. G. A. Shelby, last week.

Miss Beulah Garner, of Decatur, Ala., is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. King, of Fourth avenue, South.

Mr. Boxley, of Patterson street, who was hurt several weeks ago in a blast out on Belmont street, is rapidly improving.

Mrs. W. T. King, of Fourth avenue, South, entertained Tuesday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Beulah Garner, of Decatur, Ala.

Miss Jimmie Bridgewater was called to Gallatin last Thursday on account of the serious illness of her niece.

Mrs. McGregory died at the city hospital this week and her funeral services were held at Mount Olive Baptist Church.

Mr. J. W. Blaine, of Gallatin pike, has been out of the city for several days.

Mrs. Ellen Benson, of Hamilton street, is still on the sick list.

Mr. John Lytton, of Lea avenue, continues ill.

Mrs. Easter Robertson, of 621 Webster street, recently visited her mother, Mrs. Anna Wherry, at Edgefield Junction. Samuel Robertson accompanied his mother.

Mr. J. N. Lewis, of Fifth avenue, South, is still indisposed.

PROF. J. T. PHILLIPS IN TEXAS.

Prof. Jasper Tappan Phillips, who some time ago was elected to the chair of languages in the Tyler College, Tyler, Tex., left the city Thursday for his new field of labor. It was thought that Prof. Phillips would remain in this city and study dentistry, but the school authorities continued to write for him, so he decided to teach at Tyler for one year.

BISHOP TYREE WILL PREACH AT ST. JOHN SUNDAY.

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Bishop Evans Tyree will preach at St. John A. M. E. Church. It was only after an urgent appeal by Dr. Haigler and the officers of the church that Bishop Tyree consented to preach, his extensive tour through Oklahoma and Texas having greatly fatigued him. He is one of the hardest workers among the bishops in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. He is truly devoted to his church and seldom declines when called upon to perform a duty.

It goes without saying that St. John will be crowded on Sunday morning, for the people of this city, irrespective of denomination, love and reverence Bishop Tyree. The choir will furnish special music for the occasion.

"LINEN DAY"—MERCY HOSPITAL.

"Linen Day" will be observed at Mercy Hospital next Wednesday, Oct. 16, by the Ladies' Board of that institution. They will appreciate anything donated in way of towels, pillowslips, sheets, etc.

MRS. SUSIE CARTER, President.
MRS. HARRIET A. BOYD, Vice President.

SURPRISE PARTY.

There was a surprise party given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, 923 Vine street, Wednesday, October 2, by a few ladies of North Nashville. The floor of the room was beautifully waxed and dancing was the feature of the evening. Music was furnished by Miss Davis. Those present were Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Ranson Davis and Mrs. Sallie Smith and son, of Indianapolis, Messrs. Philip Webber, Partee, Gill, Gibson and Marshall.

MRS. CROSTHWAITE ENTERTAINED.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carter, of 713 Gay street, entertained with an elaborate evening reception Thursday, October 3, in honor of Mrs. D. N. Crosthwaite, of Kansas City, Mo. Their beautiful home was brilliantly lighted and decorated with the season's flowers. In the front parlor the honoree appearing in a creation of white embroidered mull and lace, stood with Mrs. Carter to welcome the guests, most of them being old friends and scholars of Mrs. Crosthwaite, who formerly resided in this city and taught in the city schools. Many amusing games were indulged in and at a late hour a hot supper of three courses, including salads, sandwiches, cocoa and ices was served. Among those present were Rev. and Mrs. Spencer Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hightower, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Napier, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson, Mesdames J. D. Ballentyne, W. H. Hodgkins, J. B. Singleton, Preston Taylor and Rhodes, Misses Lena Boyd, Rochester, N. Y., Mattie B. Scales, DeWitt Shorter, Mollie Berry, Lillie Banks, Ruth Pearl McKinney, Elvora Berry, Fanny Banks, Cornelia Young, Esther Berry and Georgia Bradford, Dr. F. A. Stewart, Messrs. Samuel Carter, Foster Jones, H. A. Boyd, Drs. J. R. Hightower, Rambeaux, Bailey and Jasper T. Phillips.

LADIES' BOARD OF MERCY HOSPITAL.

The Ladies' Board of Mercy Hospital will meet at the residence of Mrs. Harriet A. Boyd, 523 Second avenue North, next Monday, Oct. 14, to transact general business in interest of the work. By order of

MRS. SUSIE CARTER, President.
MRS. HARRIET A. BOYD, Vice President.

RECEIVES A GOVERNMENT POSITION IN WASHINGTON.

Mr. Ambrose Allen Bennett, of East Nashville, formerly with the Life and Casualty Company, has been appointed by the United States Civil Service Commission to a government position at Washington.

Mr. Bennett is a young man of acknowledged ability and stands high in church and secret society circles. He holds a number of offices of responsibility. He is Master of Finance and Grand Lodge Representative of Fidelity Lodge, No. 32, K. of P.; Recorder and Sergeant of the Twentieth Century Company, No. 8, Uniform Rank; Secretary of East Nashville K. of P. Hall trustees; Assistant Secretary Young Men's Lecture Bureau; President of the First Baptist Church B. Y. P. U.

Mr. Bennett will leave the city for Washington on Monday, October 14.

PAYNE CHAPEL PUTTING ON A NEW DRESS.

The work on Payne Chapel by tanners, paper hangers and carpenters in preparation for the Conference, which convenes there October 31 to November 4, is nearing completion and makes quite a change in the appearance, especially on the inside of the church. Rev. Flagg and his congregation of earnest workers are to be congratulated. By the time the readers of this paper see this, the pastor and members will have bought and paid for a new site for New Payne Chapel.

Next Sunday is quarterly meeting day, the last one of this Conference year. Dr. I. H. Welch will preach all day.

Monday night Bishop B. F. Lee, A. M., D. D., will preach. He desires to meet all of the officers and members of the church.

ST. PAUL MITE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

A meeting of the Woman's Mite Missionary was held recently in the lecture room of the church. Mrs. G. L. Jackson, president, opened the religious services.

Reports were made of missionary work by the members, such as visiting the sick and aged, seeking those unconverted and urging them to accept Christ, encouraging children to attend the Sabbath school, and the young people to attend the Allen Endeavor, etc. Reports were very encouraging, showing that much work had been done. Special prayer for the unsaved was offered by Mrs. Lizzie Allen.

Miscellaneous business was transacted, after which the president asked Dr. R. H. Early to address the ladies. The address was very encouraging and inspiring.

Several committees were appointed: Mesdames Peyton, Campbell and Harlan to arrange for a special sermon.

Mesdames Lewis, Adams and Sharp to solicit some aid from the Sunday school.

Mesdames Tyree, Payton and Foster to solicit aid from the Allen Endeavor.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served in two courses by Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Crump and Mrs. Harlan. Waitresses: Little Mary B. Jackson, Leon Saunders and Laura Crump. A very pleasant and enjoyable evening was had. Mrs. E. Tyree, honorary President; Mrs. G. L. Jackson, President; Mary Peyton, Secretary; Harriet Campbell, Treasurer.
